James R. Downing, manager of Frankie Darren, who resides in Ogden, last night made the following statement in answer to the charges listed by Darren in which the welterweight boxing champion of Utah seeks to break a contract which he holds with

Downing. "I took a hold of Darren early this year when I noted that he gave promise of being a top notcher in the boxing game," said Downing. "I figured on using my 12 years of experience with his ability in making him the coming welterweight champion.

'I even corresponded with Pinkie Mitchell's manager for a match at Deer Lodge, Mont., with Pinkie Mitchell, who holds the welterweight junior championship. This match was to be staged during the early part of
